One Nation Under God

Published Monthly – June 2009

My Brothers and Sisters in Columbianism,

As the Columbian Year draws to a close, it is time to look back and thank all those responsible for the great things we as a Council accomplished.

No charitable effort is possible without the grace of Almighty God through whom every good deed is possible. Although He wasn't always on the same page in regards to the weather, He continues to inspire the great men and women of Stolzenthaler to serve His children most in need.

My beautiful wife, Betty has been very patient and supportive of me in my efforts to execute the duties of my office even though they take me away from home at times. I remember how proud she was when she put my Grand Knight's jewel on me in September. She is still supporting me in my position as Grand Knight one year later. I thank her for her continued love, encouragement and support.

My Mom and Dad, as with every endeavor of my life, have stood by me during this year offering their counsel and love. I thank them for their guidance and advice, especially when tough decisions had to be made.

Although he has had some major health set-backs, our Chaplain, Fr. Angelo, is always concerned and involved in the happenings of his flock here at Stolzenthaler. While he has not been here with us physically, his courage and determination inspire us beyond measure. The grace we have received through his prayers is priceless.

In my first bulletin message, I said I had an All-Star team of officers and they have certainly lived up to that billing. They worked hard with me every step of the way making sure that the Council's activities are a success. I remember Karl manning the clam bar at the family picnic for what seemed like an eternity. The "Iron Chancellor," Dave Clark could have hosted his own cooking show out of our kitchen. Frank has been my steady right arm all year stepping in whenever needed.

It has been a wonderful experience working with our sister Columbiettes. As they transition into a new slate of officers, I would like to offer the Council's appreciation to out-going President, Joann Micciulla for keeping the Auxiliary active and vibrant over the last two years. I would also like to extend the Council's continual support for the new slate of officers.

Finally, nothing is possible without the support of the membership. We are blessed to have so many good people who constantly support our events and fund-raisers. This is why we are the most active and vibrant Council on Staten Island.

As 2008-2009 draws to a close, let us remember those great things we have accomplished and the many people we have helped in our community. The 2009-2010 Columbian Year will bring a lot of fun, opportunities for spirituality, family time and community outreach as we are already planning some great events. Hope you have a restful and peaceful summer, you deserve it!

Yours in the service of God and neighbor,

Edmund F. Newborn II

Greetings!

Happy June! I am still at the rehab center in Park Ridge but hope to be returning to St. Benedict soon. Thank you for keeping me in your hearts, minds and prayers and please continue to do so. It is always a pleasure to talk with members of the council and their spouses. I have certainly missed the opportunities for fellowship with you. As always you are in my thoughts and prayers. I look forward to seeing you soon.

I want to wish all of you and your fathers and grandfathers and those who act in the role of father a very happy and blessing filled holiday. As you celebrate on your special day please remember those fathers who have gone before us and know that I will do the same. All of you will be in my prayers on Father's Day.

I pray that God will lead you to walk by the light of faith and let the example of your faith and love shine forth. I pray too that families will honor fathers and grandfathers with a spirit of profound respect.

Congratulations to all in your families who are graduating and moving to the next phase in their lives.

I hope you will take advantage of the many blessings of the summer. I look forward to talking to you soon.

God love you!

Fr. Angelo
